

David Cook

Position: Senior Consultant

Education:

University of Alberta
PhD, International Relations and Comparative Politics

Years of Experience: 30

Fields of Experience: International political economy, trade and investment policy, regional and multilateral trade negotiations, SME trade development and export marketing;

Countries worked in: United States, Iceland,
England, Ukraine, Moldova, Lithuania, Kyrgyz,
Mexico, Greater China, and Russia

Biographical Summary

David is a specialist in international political economy, trade and investment policy, regional and multilateral trade negotiations, SME trade development and export marketing. His career includes public and private sector engagements as a policy analyst, strategic planner, economist, executive manager, and negotiator.

In addition to teaching university courses on international relations, the world trading system, and foreign policy, David has operated a private-sector export consortium, and advised on private sector trade policy issues. He has conducted business and research in the United States, Iceland, England, and emerging markets in Ukraine, Moldova, Lithuania, Kyrgyz, Mexico, Greater China, and Russia. He continues to research and write on contemporary trade issues.

David has received a citation from the Governor General of Canada, and was awarded the Commemorative Medal for the 125th Anniversary of Canadian Confederation, in recognition of significant contributions to Canada.

For further information about the consultancy services provided by David Cook, please email contact@cstoneglobal.com